

0.6 m Round SATA Cable

Product ID: SATRD60CM

This 0.6 m round SATA cable provides a secure connection to your SATA drives while ensuring optimal airflow throughout your desktop or server case.

Featuring a rounded design, this SATA hard drive power cable helps improve airflow inside your computer. It provides less resistance as air passes around the SATA cable ensuring cooling for optimized system performance.

The latching SATA cable features locking connectors that help prevent accidental disconnections when connected to your SATA drives.

Compliant with SATA 6Gb/s specifications, this SATA cord supports fast data transfer rates of up to 6Gbps when used with SATA 3.0 compliant drives.

StarTech.com conducts thorough compatibility and performance testing on all our products to ensure we are meeting or exceeding industry standards and providing high-quality products to our customers.
